Student Application
Due no later than 3:00 p.m. Monday, September 22nd, 2014

Questions to be answered in a separate document:

Which leadership position(s) are you applying for?

What draws you to the Courts for Kids project and the leadership position?

What do you hope to gain from this experience?

Please describe any study or service abroad experience you have, and / or talk a bit about your level of competence in working with people from cultures and backgrounds other than your own.

What experience do you bring to the leadership role? What would you contribute to the group?

Do you have concerns about undertaking a leadership position? What are they?
The Small Print

If selected as a student leader I understand that I will be offered the opportunity to participate in the Courts for Kids trip to Panama from March 18\textsuperscript{th} – 26\textsuperscript{th}, 2015.

Initial: ____________________

I understand that I must indicate my intention to participate on the trip, submit all paperwork, and pay the $200 deposit, by Friday, October 31\textsuperscript{st}, 2014.

Initial: ____________________

I understand that I must meet all qualifications for participation on the trip, identical to the requirements for other participants (good academic standing; taking and passing Global Citizenship in Winter term 2015; completion of all paperwork; meeting payment deadlines; vaccinations)

Initial: ____________________

I understand that if I fail to meet the responsibilities of my leadership position, that my participation on the trip will be subject to review by faculty and staff trip coordinators
