SYMPOSIUM
The Center for Equity Promotion and the Department of Educational Methodology, Policy, and Leadership announce

South of the University:
An Inspiring Partnership with the People of Central America

DATE:  Friday, January 25, 2013
TIME:  3:30 to 5:00 PM
WHERE:  HEDCO Education Building 220
TARGET AUDIENCE:  All education community leaders and UO staff members, faculty, and students, especially COE students interested in international study and collaboration

Learn how research and scholarship opportunities in Central America can transform lives and forever change yours. Come find out if there is a way you might take part in the future of education in Central America!

PRESENTERS:
Charles Martinez
- Associate Professor, Educational Methodology, Policy, and Leadership, UO College of Education

Mark Eddy
- Director of Research, Partners for Our Children, University of Washington

Betsy Ruth
- Project Manager, Center for Equity Promotion, UO College of Education

Carmen Urbina
- Parent, Family, and Diversity Coordinator, Eugene School District 4J

CONTACT:  For more information, contact Sandra Epple sepple@uoregon.edu or 541-346-8898
http://education.uoregon.edu/events/ceqp