College of Education Student Scholarships List 2013–14

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>SCHOLARSHIP</th>
<th>AWARDED TO</th>
<th>PURPOSE</th>
<th>CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>ALUMNI SCHOLARSHIP FUND</td>
<td>Junior–Graduate Student</td>
<td>Any program in the College of Education</td>
<td>• Demonstrated academic success&lt;br&gt;• Promise as an educator</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>WILLIAM F. ANTHONY SCHOLARSHIP</td>
<td>Junior–Graduate Student</td>
<td>Any program in the College of Education</td>
<td>• Financial need&lt;br&gt;• Demonstrated academic success&lt;br&gt;• Special consideration of students successfully demonstrating active involvement in campus clubs, service organizations, and/or other campus-sponsored student organizations such as intramural sports or music performance, etc.&lt;br&gt;• Special consideration given to students from the province of British Columbia, Canada</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>WES BECKER AWARD</td>
<td>Graduate Student</td>
<td>School Psychology</td>
<td>• Demonstrated academic success&lt;br&gt;• Promise as a researcher and educator</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>CLARE WILKINS CHAMBERLIN AWARD</td>
<td>Graduate Student</td>
<td>Any program in the College of Education</td>
<td>• Demonstrated academic success</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>NED J. CHRISTENSEN SCHOLARSHIP</td>
<td>Junior–Graduate Student</td>
<td>Communication Disorders and Sciences</td>
<td>• Undergraduate: academic excellence&lt;br&gt;• Graduate: clinical excellence</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>LUCINDA JANE CRISWELL SCHOLARSHIP</td>
<td>Graduate or Post-Baccalaureate Student</td>
<td>Teacher Preparation or Educational Leadership</td>
<td>• Demonstrated academic success&lt;br&gt;• Preference given to students preparing to become educators or educational administrators in Oregon&lt;br&gt;• Financial need</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>CAROLE DALY SCHOLARSHIP</td>
<td>Junior–Graduate Student</td>
<td>Any program in the College of Education</td>
<td>• Financial need&lt;br&gt;• Demonstrated academic success&lt;br&gt;• Preference given to students working with at-risk populations</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>DANIELS FAMILY SCHOLARSHIP</td>
<td>Junior–Graduate Student</td>
<td>Any program in the College of Education</td>
<td>• Demonstrated academic success&lt;br&gt;• Financial need&lt;br&gt;• Enrolled in degree or licensure program</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>JANETTE GUNTHER DREW SCHOLARSHIP</td>
<td>Junior–Graduate Student</td>
<td>Teacher Preparation</td>
<td>• Demonstrated academic success&lt;br&gt;• Oregon resident</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>DYNAMIC MEASUREMENT GROUP AWARD</td>
<td>Graduate Student</td>
<td>Any program in the College of Education</td>
<td>• Demonstrated academic excellence&lt;br&gt;• Academic studies primarily focused on importance of early literacy, prevention of reading failure, or related areas&lt;br&gt;• Preference given to students who demonstrate interest in a systemwide-change approach in schools</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>JEAN DURETTE PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT FUND</td>
<td>Graduate Student</td>
<td>Educational Leadership/Administration</td>
<td>• Financial need&lt;br&gt;• Promise in chosen area of professional studies&lt;br&gt;• Preference given to students with interest in serving U.S. public schools in socio-economically disadvantaged or minority populations</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
JANE ELIASON FUND IN COMMUNICATION DISORDERS AND SCIENCES
Established by Alan Eliason to honor his late wife to provide support for field work and practicum experiences for students in the areas of speech, language, and hearing, and to help students cover costs related to supervision within the program.

BONNIE NORDMAN ELLIOT SCHOLARSHIP
Established by educators, family, and friends in memory of Bonnie Elliott, in honor of her dedication to education in Oregon and the language teaching profession, and her devotion as a Spanish teacher and mentor. Bonnie received her degree from the College of Education, taught foreign language in Central Oregon, and lost her battle with cancer in 2007.

KEN A. ERICKSON MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP
Established through contributions by the family and friends of Emeritus Professor Ken Erickson.

FACULTY SCHOLARSHIP FUND
This scholarship is created through the combined annual gifts from College of Education faculty.

CHRISTINE ANNE GILLESSE MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP
Established by Will Morningsun, in memory of his wife, Christine, an alumna of the College of Education and devoted special education teacher. "Christine was an advocate for the student with disabilities. She knew she could make a difference, and she did."

ROSE GROSS SCHOLARSHIP
Established by the estate of Rose Gross.

GUSTAFSON SCHOLARSHIP
This fund was established in 2008 by UO alumnus James Gustafson, in order to help support war veterans who are preparing to become teachers of math and science.

PAUL B. JACOBSON MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP
Established by Karen J. Warren in honor of her father, Paul B. Jacobson, former dean of the College of Education. This scholarship recognizes his devotion to and efforts on behalf of providing quality education for all those who feel called to teach.

PAT KILLGALLON SCHOLARSHIP
Established by the Oregon Federation and Council for Exceptional Children in honor of Mr. Pat Killgallon, early advocate for special education at University of Oregon.

KNOWLEDGE LEARNING CORPORATION SCHOLARSHIP
A national company providing childcare, pre-school, and after-school activities, KLC created a scholarship to support students in the UO Early Intervention program who respect children as individuals and give them the positive learning experiences they need to grow up happy and confident.

SILVY KRAUS PRESIDENTIAL FELLOWSHIP IN EDUCATION
Established to honor Silvy Kraus’s profound commitment to nurturing and mentoring future teachers of educators.

RON LEE & R.J. BERNSTEIN SCHOLARSHIP FOR FOR TOMORROW’S TEACHERS
Established by R.J. Bernstein of Los Angeles and also supported by the Richard and Susan Bernstein Family Trust, this award supports aspiring teachers who have an interest in coaching and physical education. Bernstein and Lee both played basketball at the university during the late 1970s.

---

AWARDED TO  | PURPOSE | CRITERIA
--- | --- | ---
Junior-Graduate Student | Communication Disorders and Sciences | • Demonstrated academic success • Enrolled and in good standing in the Communication Disorders and Sciences program within the College of Education
Graduate Student | Teacher Preparation | • Demonstrated academic success • Enrolled in foreign/second language teacher certification program
Junior–Graduate Student | Educational Leadership/ Administration | • Demonstrated academic success
Junior–Graduate Student | Any program in the College of Education | • Demonstrated academic success • Promise as an educator
Junior–Graduate Student | Special Education Related Services | • Demonstrated academic success • Enrolled in licensure program • Desire to work with children with special needs • Financial need not considered
Junior–Graduate Student | Teacher Preparation | • Demonstrated academic success • Financial need
Junior–Graduate Student | Teacher Preparation | • Preference given to students who are currently receiving US war veterans’ education benefits through the GI Bill for active combat services • Enrolled full time • Desire to teach science or mathematics • Demonstrated academic success • Financial need
Junior–Graduate Student | Teacher and/or Administrator Preparation | • Promise as an educator or administrator • Demonstrated academic success • Financial need
Junior–Graduate Student | Special Education | • Demonstrated academic success
Junior–Graduate Student | Early Intervention | • Demonstrated focus on children whose development and learning are at risk
Graduate Student | Support of a student focusing on preparing professional educators | • Demonstrated academic success • US citizen or permanent resident alien
Junior-Graduate Student | Teacher Preparation | • Demonstrated academic success • Interest in coaching or physical education
Pursue a meaningful career in teaching.

Established by the late Kathryn Steel, a graduate of the College of Education, who began a 14-year teaching career when she was 54 years old. She so enjoyed her work, she wanted to provide a fund to give students the opportunity to pursue a meaningful career in teaching.

KATHRYN LANGENBERG STEEL SCHOLARSHIP
Established by the late Kathryn Steel, a graduate of the College of Education, who began a 14-year teaching career when she was 54 years old. She so enjoyed her work, she wanted to provide a fund to give students the opportunity to pursue a meaningful career in teaching.

Graduate Student
Elementary Education Majors
• Demonstrated academic success
• Undergraduate student in good academic standing majoring in Family and Human Services
• Financial need

Established by the late Kathryn Steel, a graduate of the College of Education, who began a 14-year teaching career when she was 54 years old. She so enjoyed her work, she wanted to provide a fund to give students the opportunity to pursue a meaningful career in teaching.

Graduate Student
Elementary Education Majors
• Demonstrated academic success
• Undergraduate student in good academic standing majoring in Family and Human Services
• Financial need

Established by the late Kathryn Steel, a graduate of the College of Education, who began a 14-year teaching career when she was 54 years old. She so enjoyed her work, she wanted to provide a fund to give students the opportunity to pursue a meaningful career in teaching.
ED AND PEGGY TAYLOR SCHOLARSHIP
Established by COE professor and Family and Human Services program director, Dan Close, and EC CARES co-director, Val Taylor-Close, in honor of Val’s parents, Ed and Peggy Taylor. The scholarship reflects the Taylors’ personal passion for assisting individuals in achieving what they never thought possible.

FRED K. THOMPSON SCHOLARSHIP
Established through the estate of Fred K. Thompson, a custodian in the Portland Public Schools.

THOMSON FAMILY SCHOLARSHIP IN EDUCATION
Established by Julie and Keith Thomson to support students in the College of Education.

JEAN TWOHIG SCHOLARSHIP
Established by the late Jean Twohig, an alumna of the University of Oregon, to support students in human services programs.

UNIVERSITY HIGH SCHOOL SCHOLARSHIP
Established in 2007 by alumni and friends of University High School to honor the spirit of “Uni High” through the support of future educators.

THOMAS W. VOLLMER MEMORIAL FUND
Established by Andrea Wiggins, family, and friends, in loving memory of her son Thomas. The scholarship provides support for a student desiring to utilize applied research to direct involvement with teens and young adults.

WALKER EDUCATOR DIVERSITY SCHOLARSHIP
Established by Tom and Jeanne Walker to provide financial assistance to culturally diverse students with financial need. Created to recruit students from underrepresented communities to the teaching profession and encourage them to return to their home communities upon licensure.

HILL M. WALKER LEGACY SCHOLARSHIP
Established in honor of internationally known educator and scholar Hill M. Walker, Ph.D., in recognition of his mentorship and his profound impact on educational and social services.

HELENA DEGNATH WESSELA MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP
Established by Conrad P. Wessela in memory of his wife.

WILLIAM N. & PATSY A. WILBER SCHOLARSHIP
William and Patsy Wilber of Burns, Oregon, established this fund so that students from rural areas of Oregon can be supported in their pursuit of higher education, especially those students who would not be able to attend college without financial support.

JANE WILEY SCHOLARSHIP
Jane Marie Wiley, who received her degree in elementary education from the College of Education, annually supports a student scholarship award for students preparing to become teachers.

FLORENCE WOLFARD SCHOLARSHIP
Established by Larry Wolfard, who credits his preparation as a teacher at the College of Education as the basis for his life’s career as an executive for US West Communications. The Florence Wolfard Scholarship memorializes his wife, who was an educator.