See What’s Growing!

Come visit us at Edison Elementary and learn all about the Schoolhouse Garden class—open to all UO students.

Everyone is welcome to come and see how we work together building community relationships and growing food for those in need.

DATE: Friday, October 4

MEETING PLACE: College of Education HEDCO Education Building lobby

TIME: Groups will be guided to the garden every 30 minutes from 1:00 to 3:00 PM
- Family and Human Services
  Course 409: The Schoolhouse Garden
The Schoolhouse Garden is transforming lives by working together to grow food for those in need. Learn hands-on organic gardening and cooking skills while working with local at-risk youth.

COURSE FEATURES:
- OPEN TO ALL UO STUDENTS
- Learning through service
- Gardening
- Cooking
- Food justice
- Design
- Urban farming

The Schoolhouse Garden on Facebook:
UOSchoolhouseGarden

- Service-Learning Program
The College of Education’s Service-Learning Program unites the campus and our community in mutually beneficial relationships for engaged scholarship, reciprocity, and social change.

Through diverse course offerings, you can develop strong relationships with the community, ground your academic experience in an applied context, and engage new cultures domestically and abroad.

SERVICE-LEARNING COURSES:
- OPEN TO ALL UO STUDENTS
- Global Citizenship
- Mentoring in the Community
- K-12 Education
- Service-Learning Theory and Practice
- Human Services
- Early Childhood Services
- Outdoor School
- The Schoolhouse Garden

Service-Learning Program on Facebook:
Service.Learning.UO

---

"The Garden class has changed my life."
~ Marine biology undergraduate student

"Everyone should experience a Service-Learning class!"
~ Psychology department graduate

An equal-opportunity, affirmative-action institution committed to cultural diversity and compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act. This publication will be made available in accessible formats upon request. Accommodations for people with disabilities will be provided if requested in advance by calling 541-346-1607.

©2013 University of Oregon COE613