What to do on June 15, 2015:
 The College of Education ceremony will be held at the Matthew Knight Arena. Guest seating is first-come, first-served. No tickets are required. Guests are to go directly to the arena. The ceremony will start promptly at 6:00 pm and last about 2 hours.

 Check-in between 5:00 pm and 5:30 pm at the procession line-up area at the West Entrance to Matthew Knight Arena (this is the entrance behind the Ford Alumni Center).

 At the check-in area, pick up a name card and you will be directed to the lower area of the arena to get in line. Ph.D. & Master's candidates wear their tassel on the left. Bachelor's students wear their tassel on the right.

 The procession will march to the arena floor and a commencement volunteer will direct students to their seats. Remain standing until the Dean asks the graduates to sit.

 When it's your time to get on stage, you will be guided by a commencement volunteer. Hand your name card to the reader, shake hands with the Dean, get your diploma cover from a faculty marshal and then return to your seat.

 Enjoy yourself—you've earned it!

After the Ceremony:
 Check back at the COE website for access to photos and video of the ceremony.
